			The main objective is to give shelter to the women victims of violence. With the passage of time, awareness regarding the rights of the women increased and they become more educated about their rights. Dar-ul-Falah is an institution established by the Department for the welfare of widows, divorced, deserted and separated women along with their children. The main objective behind the establishment of these homes is to save the unfortunate, poverty-stricken families, leading a sub human life; forcing them to immoral pursuits and begging. Unmarried and dependent children (boys up to 11 years of age and girls up to 18 years of age) are admitted along with their mothers. The age limit in the case of unmarried dependent daughters is relaxed by the superintendent under special circumstances. Shaheed Benazir Bhutto Human Rights Centers for Women were working under Federal Government but after 18th amendment these centers have been adopted by Punjab Government, Social Welfare Department in 2014. There are a total 12 centers. These centers are established with the objective to protect women against all forms of violence and to eliminate every type of discrimination against women. These homes are providing quality services including shelter, food, health care and recreational facilities to those old and infirm persons of the society. Who are above 60 years of age.
